

Buddha Nature dedication ceremony

We dedicate this place
To Awakening
And call all beings as witness
We call the Earth Goddess to witness us
As a worthy vessel for this task
Please give your blessing and support our practice.

We dedicate this place
To Understanding
And call all beings as witness
We call the lineage of teachers
Awakened through the practice
Please give your blessings and support our practice.

We dedicate this place
To Bodhicitta
And call all beings as witness
We call the mandala of Awakened ones
Liberated through Wisdom
Please give your blessings and support our practice.

All around in the ten directions
The many kinds of beings dwell
Experiencing the ceaseless round, becoming
May there be release for them
May I be able to practice
The profound dharma
Benefitting all beings

In this blessed place
May the vision arise
Clear and true
Of the nature of this mind and world
Vast and limitless in extent
Clear and present
Here and now

HUM.
